

Throughout this book you will learn how your struggles, heartache and tears eventually turn from a nightmare into a ministry. Within you will find encouragement to take the first step out of your grief and to climb the mountain out of the valley of the shadow of death. This book will also inspire those that may question heaven. A child's amazing visits to heaven gave him the courage to tell others about Jesus. His bravery and boldness after dying and losing his father will open your eyes to how God can use an unthinkable tragedy for his glory. If you have endured a catastrophic loss and questioned God, this book will show you how to persevere and find happiness again.
