

Abound in Love

When Laura Landers family invites her to return to her hometown to join them for the Thanksgiving holiday, shes uncertain. She and her sister havent gotten along since they were children, and Lauras heart still aches from the old hurts. To complicate matters, shed left her heart behind years before, and shes not sure her feelings for family friend, Dalton Jance, are dormant. Laura accepts the holiday invitation, and finds that her family is falling apart. Her sisters marriage is seemingly over, her nephew and niece are suffering for it, and her brother is exhausted from trying to run interference. With Gods help and a little help from Dalton can Laura bring her family together again? And will she find her own happily ever after with the man who has occupied her dreams for years?
