

The Prophetic Ministry

What is prophecy? Who is to prophesy? Is it right to seek prophecy? Since we have the Bible for guidance, do we really need prophecy today? How do the prophetic gifts and ministries function in the local church? Why do we need prophets if all of God's people are able to hear His voice? Can a true prophet miss a prediction? How can we recognize counterfeit gifts of the Spirit? These are just a few of the common questions being asked in the church today. If the church does not provide Biblical answers, we can be sure the vacuum created by ignorance will be filled with deceptions. If you refuse to settle for less than all God has you, if you won't be intimidated by those who claim that God doesn't still speak today, this book will answer your questions and challenge you to know God and hear from Him as you never have before!

Five-fold prophets, prophetic ministry, prophecy, prophetic gifts, prophetic revelation, and prophetic articles, and reviews. It is not a ministry that anyone can take up. Only a false prophet dares to take up this ministry for himself. The true prophetic ministry always begins with a call. Familiar spirits are discerned through prophetic ministry. Prophets must guard their ministries from prophetic error and evil spirits. To accomplish this, prophets avoid these pitfalls if you want healthy, New Testament-style ministry that honors the Holy Spirit. This was an outline of the basics of the prophetic ministry I created for a prophetic activations class. I hope it will help you understand the prophetic ministry.
