Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. I understand there are a good many Southerners in the room tonight. I know the South very well. I spent twenty years there one night...Last time I was down South I walked into this restaurant, and this white waitress came up to me and said: We dont serve colored people here.I said: Thats all right, I dont eat colored people. Bring me a whole fried chicken.About that time these three cousins come in, you know the ones I mean, Klu, Kluck, and Klan, and they say: Boy, were givin you fair warnin. Anything you do to that chicken, were gonna do to you. About then the waitress brought me my chicken. Remember, boy, anything you do to that chicken, were gonna do to you. So I put down my knife and fork, and I picked up that chicken, and I kissed it.
