Bostonian Evelyn Wellington has always worked in her fathers prosperous warehouse. After his death, she has no choice except to continue her masculine occupation to feed her family. But the discovery that one of her major suppliers is shipping smuggled goods to avoid the new taxes endangers her family and livelihood. Alex Hampton, heir presumptive to the Earl of Cranville and the earls shipping partner, has reluctantly left his comfortable London home to uncover the traitor using his ships for smuggling. Hes quite prepared to rake the complaining warehouse owner over the coals until hes stunned by a highly improper beauty in breeches.
