

The complete Golden Bangles Trilogy, about the exciting and vexing twists and turns that can lead to the most unexpected happy endings. In Dream Man, has the world's most devout bachelor just met his match? Dedicated playboy Max McKenzie is used to being hotly pursued by any single female within striking distance. But a newspaper ad seeking a male for a long-term commitment intrigues him. And the woman who placed the ad captivates him even more ... In Moonlight Man, Sharon Leslie is content with her life raising her young son and daughter and working at the local library. Or so she tells herself ... until Marc Duval moves next door and the single mother realizes what she's been missing. Through the simple notes of his harmonica, the enigmatic, golden-haired rover begins a magical seduction. But his haunting melodies conceal a secret sorrow. In Sharing Sunrise, Marian Crane is fit to be tied. Rolph McKenzie—the man she's loved all her life—still sees her as a kid and refuses to take her seriously. So Marian decides it's time to stop playing it cool and turn up the heat. Her campaign of seduction will prove to the insufferable, yet irresistible marina owner that she's the only woman for the job—and for him.
