

Download for FREE with Kindle Unlimited Sara is pushed into finding a husband by her parents who are determined that she will build a life of her own as opposed for caring for them in their old age. David is a cowboy who is still pained by the loss of his wife and child. He is pushed into marrying again by his ranch hands who feel that he needs a womans touch again. Despite the cold responses of his letters Sara agrees to marry David and thinks the adventure will be good for her. But she almost immediately regrets her choice. Bit by bit the two warm to each other and then something happens that will either break the new marriage or unite it for forever.
