

Dangerous devotion The Global Aid Organization gives Gulnar the chance to forget her past in the urgency of the present. Her dedication to nursing casualties leaves no room for love. But she begins to question her resolve when stunning surgeon Dante Guerriero steps in to help in an emergency situation and saves hundreds of lives in the process. Dante doesn't think of himself as a hero. It's easy to be courageous when you have nothing left to lose. But Gulnar's fire and passion are bringing him back to life, reminding him that bravery means nothing without love....
